ABOUT THE CONNECTICUT CHALLENGE

The Connecticut Challenge is a charity bike ride to benefit cancer patients and survivors. Money raised through the event is directed to Yale Cancer Center in New Haven, CT to fund the Connecticut Challenge Survivorship Clinic for adults and the HERO'S Clinic for survivors of childhood cancers. The 4th annual Connecticut Challenge will take place on Saturday, July 26, 2008. Cyclists may ride 12, 25, 50 or 100 miles. For more information, visit www.ctchallenge.org.

The Connecticut Challenge is a program of Bike Across America, Inc., a 501(c)(3) charitable organization. All contributions of $250 or more will be acknowledged in writing following the 2008 event. All contributions are tax deductible to the extent of the law. Tax ID#: 20-2777748.

Thank you for your support for the Connecticut Challenge. All cancer survivors will benefit from your donation.
